• DISTRICT HOSTS PERFORMANCE PAY INFORMATION SESSIONS

The district is hosting a series of information sessions about the 2008-2009 Performance Pay Program. Through the 2008-2009 program, campus-based instructional staff at most district schools may earn awards based on the School Effectiveness Index, and teachers who receive a Classroom Effectiveness Index may earn awards for individual performance. The program is sponsored by the Teacher Incentive Fund, a five-year $22.3 million grant the district received from the U.S. Department of Education to fund incentives for improving student achievement. The information sessions are being held from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. at the following locations:

Thursday, Jan. 22 – Moisés E. Molina High School
Monday, Jan. 26 – L.G. Pinkston High School
Wednesday, Jan. 28 – Lincoln High School
Thursday, Jan. 29 – Seagoville Middle School
Monday, Feb. 2 – A. Maceo Smith High School
Tuesday, Feb. 3 – H. Grady Spruce High School
Wednesday, Feb. 4 – Thomas Jefferson High School
Thursday, Feb. 5 – South Oak Cliff High School

• STUDENTS INVITED TO “AN ADVENTURE IN ANIME!”

The Crow Collection of Asian Art’s Teen Advisory Board presents “An Adventure in Anime!” from 6:30 to 10 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 24, at The Trammell and Margaret Crow Collection of Asian Art, 2010 Flora Street. The free event is open to students ages 14 to 18 and includes a class on voiceover acting with Kent Williams, a sushi making demonstration, and a viewing of “Spirited Away.” Guests may park under the Trammell Crow Center for $5 by entering from Olive St. or take DART to the St. Paul station and walk two blocks northwest to Flora St.
