

Financial Aid Support

The following website addresses can help you with your college and financial aid search.

Naviance

<https://connection.naviance.com/fc/signin.php?hsid=bookert>

- Complete a college search
- Search by name or by supplying information about what you are looking for and collegeboard.com will provide you with a list of schools that meet your preferences
- Information about SAT's, PSAT/NMSQT's, AP's and CLEP's
- Download a practice tests for SAT and ACT
- Information on college costs, majors, entrance requirements
- Learn about college costs and how to get financial aid
- Connect with other BTW graduates attending the college or school of your choice

www.collegeboard.com

- Apply online to colleges
- Gives you a head start on the application by importing information you already provided when registering for the SAT's
- Complete a college search
- Search by name or by supplying information about what you are looking for and collegeboard.com will provide you with a list of schools that meet your preferences
- Information about SAT's, PSAT/NMSQT's, AP's and CLEP's
- Register for SAT's
- Prepare for SAT's
- Download a practice test
- Information on dates of tests and deadlines for registration
- Learn about college costs and how to get financial aid
- Like finder provides you with a list of schools that are most like a school that you are interested in. Like finder compares each school to you original choice and lists similarities.
- Link to CSS/Financial Aid Profile

www.collegeview.com

- Complete a college search
- Apply on line
- Complete a scholarship search
- Information and test prep about SAT's, PSAT/NMSQT's, ACT's, TOEFL's and GRE's
- Take virtual tours of colleges
- Provides information about financial aid
- Utilize a career center
- Take a sample self assessment test
- Research types of career training
- Review tips on interviewing, resume writing and cover letters

www.MyMajors.com

- Conducts a short interview with students seeking assistance with their selection of a major
- Accumulates and analyzes information about students' course achievements, course enjoyment, standardized test scores, and personal preferences.
- Recommends six majors from the 63 most commonly offered 4-year majors
- Find information about majors such as:
 - Courses needed for major
 - Jobs the major lead to
 - Provides links to professional and other interesting sites related to that major
 - Provides a list of answers to frequently asked questions about majors

www.princetonreview.com

- Complete a college search
- Utilize Counselor-O-Matic to select a school based on information you provide
- Provides links to college websites
- Send an inquiry to colleges to request information
- Apply to schools online
- Research information on business schools
- Download practice tests for SAT's and ACT's
- Research information and get advice on SAT's, ACT's, PSAT's and AP's
- Receive advice on choosing a major
- Receive advice on writing a college essay
- Receive advice on interviewing
- Research financial aid