let’s talk
design, equity & community

Emmanuel Ramirez, MMX
keynote speaker
Co-founder of MMX Studio, he is an Architect and Urban Designer. He holds a degree in architecture by the National University of Mexico (UNAM) and a master degree by the Bartlett School of Architecture in London. Awarded by “FONCA” with the “Mexican Young Creators Award” he has been an invited critic and lecturer in Europe, Latin-America and the USA. Prior to founding MMX Studio, Emmanuel worked in various national and international renowned practices such as Alberto Kalach in Mexico, Skidmore Owings and Merrill (SOM) in London and Chicago and David Chipperfield in London. His work as MMX has been the recipient of various national and international awards such as the “Architectural League Prize” in New York, the “Design Vanguard Award” in New York (Architectural Record) and “The “CEMEX Award” in Mexico among others. Their work has been presented in various renowned museums and galleries such as the “MUDE Fashion Museum” in Lisbon, the “Venice Biennale” in Italy, as well as the “Storefront for Art and Architecture” and the “MOMA Museum of Modern Art” in New York.

Vandana Nayak, Perkins + Will
closing speaker
As Regional Education Practice Leader, Vandana is responsible for providing leadership to all aspects of project development and delivery. She brings two decades of institutional education experience, giving her an intimate understanding of the most critical issues related to K-12, college and university facilities. She has successfully led many innovative, forward thinking projects for the firm that have won prestigious design awards. She specializes in working with diverse constituent groups and participatory planning processes to reach solutions. The key to her success is her ability to understand the client’s passions, build consensus, and distill a unified vision while working with multiple stakeholders. She brings thoughtful leadership to every project with the goal of delivering added value and exceeding client expectations.

Tammy Underwood
CityLab principal
Ms. Underwood has been an innovative educator for 18 years. She intensely believes that all students can learn and thrive in an environment that is stimulating and supportive. As the founding CityLab High School Principal, her vision is to establish a campus that encourages learners to explore their unique talents while upholding the highest standards of academic achievement.

Peter Goldstein, AIA
CityLab co-founder
Mr. Goldstein is a licensed architect and veteran educator. A graduate of Dallas ISD, he received a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Tulane University and an M.Arch from Yale. After practicing with SOM and starting his own firm in Dallas, he began his career as an educator at the DISD magnet architecture program at Skyline High School. Mr. Goldstein has received numerous awards including recognition as Teacher of the Year, a Distinguished Fulbright Award in Teaching and Innovative Teaching Grants. Mr. Goldstein also teaches at the Fallingwater High School Residency in Mill Run, Pennsylvania.

Lorena Toffer, AIA
CityLab co-founder
Lorena Toffer, President of the CityLab Foundation and Senior Project Manager at AECOM, is Co-Founder of CityLab HS, the first Dallas ISD open enrollment high school offering Architecture, Urban Planning and Environmental Science pathways in downtown Dallas. She holds bachelors and masters degrees from Tecnológico de Monterrey CEM and Texas A&M University, and is a National Young Architect Honor Award by AIA for her exceptional leadership and significant contributions towards diversity and inclusion via grassroots initiatives. A graduate of AIA Dallas Advanced Leadership Program, she is a 2018 ENR Top Young Professional, a Woman in Real Estate by Connect Media and 2018 STEM Influencer by NSBE DFW. Regarded as a design leader and mentor, she exemplifies servant leadership in Architecture.
