Hello Atwell Families,

We hope that all is well with you during this extended school closure. As your school counselors, we wanted to reach out and share some information on how we can be of assistance to you. We want to ensure you and our students that we are still a resource and available during this time Monday –Friday from 9am-12:00pm and 1:00pm-4:00pm.

If you or child would like to conference call or email us, we will respond to all requests with a follow up e-mail or direct communication within 24 hours.
