2020-21 Attendance Boundary Planning

COMMUNITY INPUT

H.S. Thompson Elementary School

Re-Opening January 2021
Meeting Purpose

- To share boundary planning considerations for:
  - J.J. Rhoads Elementary School
  - H.S. Thompson Elementary School

- Gather input from the community
Why are changes being considered?

- The opening of the new H.S. Thompson Elementary School

- Attendance zone changes are being considered to more effectively serve the local students and community
NOTHING has been decided or approved yet regarding boundary changes

Boundary planning is for attendance zones effective starting in the 2020-21 school year
How are boundary changes determined?

- Area schools are examined to determine the most efficient way to distribute the student population within the capacities of each school and needs of the community.

- Long-term projections provided by the latest demographic study are reviewed.

- Student addresses are analyzed to determine which areas can be rezoned to another school.

- Input is gathered from various stakeholders and the Board-appointed Attendance Boundary Advisory Committee helps develop recommendations.
“Original Zone” Scenario 1

- Original zone for Thompson
- Dividing street boundaries are Harding and Brigham
- Low estimated enrollment
